

NEWS CONDENSED.

Concise Record of the Week.

EASTERN.

Samuel K. Gay, chief clerk of the Pittsburgh Pension Office, has been sent to Canada, taking $15,000 or $20,000 with him.

The loss by fire in the terra-cotta works at Ravenswood, N. J., amounts to $30,000, and nearly two hundred men will be thrown out of employment.

Henry Bicknell, a 15-year-old son of J. A. Bicknell, of Portland, Me., shot his 13-year-old sister Mabel dead, with a gun which he thought was empty. He went insane after the affair.

A loss of $30,000 was occasioned at Allegheny City by the burning of the Union foundry, on Prole avenue.

Malerial fever is epidemic at West Elizabeth, Pa. There are at present six cases, many of whom are in a serious condition.

Capt. H. C. Chester, through whose hands the number of the Hall Arctic expedition were saved, has just died at Newark, Conn.

An alleged crank, calling himself Nathan Schuler, was arrested at Albany for dogging the footsteps of President Cleveland and hovering about him. No weapons, however, were found on Schuler, who protested against his arrest, and said he deserved a political position as he was a poor man, and wanted to better himself.

Dispatches from numerous points in Southern and Eastern Iowa say that only about half a crop of wheat and oats is being harvested. Corn is in good condition, but needs rain, none having fallen for six weeks. Hay is very light.

Green's Opera House, at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was burned, entailing a loss of $30,000.

Complaints are still coming in from points throughout the Northwest of the injury to grain by the long-continued dry-weather. Corn is suffering most.

In the anarchist trial at Chicago, the prosecution placed on the stand a German carpenter named William Seliger, who gave startling details as to the manufacture of bombs in the dwelling, and plainly unfolded to the public the plot to murder politicians at the Haymarket. The witness described the making of the bombs by Ling (one of the defendants) and others. The work was "rushed" the day after the McCormick factory riot and the day of the Haymarket explosion. Half a dozen persons assisted. There was no conversation among the workmen as to the use to which the explosives were to be put. They were "thrown at the police."

The language of the witness, they said, "the best fodder" for persons marked for murder by the Socialists. Ling, though he had been a resident of America only nine months, was the most violent advocate of Socialistic "reform" by massacre in this country. He devoted all his spare time to the manufacture of bombs, specimens of which were displayed in court to the consternation of nervous jurors. Some loaded bombs were exhibited in the court-room, but an agreement was reached that they should be taken to the back chamber and exploded. At his own request, Seliger has been locked up in the police station, to escape assassination.

Watermelons have been shipped to Chicago in such quantities that commission dealers, can not, under any circumstances, handle them. A large grain elevator at East Du-

Mattie and Addie Joyner, aged twelve and eighteen, attacked their father with an ax in his sleep, at Southampton, N. Y., and hacked him to death. The girls were committed out of revenge for a severe whipping.

P. W. Chas. Sheriff of Concordia Parish, Louisiana, is reported short $27,000 in his accounts.

Peter Sorrell, colored, assaulted Mrs. Duke with a hatchet near Luling, Tex. He was captured and jailed, and in the evening was released with a fine of $100.

At Greensburg, Ky., Clem Bishop, aged 70, a backwoods doctor and preacher, married his ward, Betta Boston, whose age is but 9 years. Bishop obtained the marriage license by fraud.

A war is in progress in the parish of St. Martin, La., between the officers of the law and a land of desperadoes. A colored man named Lorenzo Randall was shot by a white man named Mills. A warrant for the arrest of Mills was placed in the hands of officers. The posse came upon Mills and his father-in-law, one Sparks, and a fight ensued, the result of which was that three of the posse were killed, and two wounded. Sparks and Mills then took to the swamps. It is said that Mills has with him some thirteen half-breed Indians and whites.

The Illinois Central Road has organized a committee to survey a direct route from Chicago to Peoria, to connect with its leased line to Dubuque, the track to be ready for next season's traffic. Surveys will also be made to St. Paul and into the lumber and iron regions of Northern Wisconsin, with the intention of reaching Lake Superior.

In the Circuit Court at Springfield, Ill., the suit against the Illinois Central Railroad Company for alleged unjust discrimination in the matter of fares from Chicago to Mattoon and Kankakee was ended by the jury bringing in a verdict for a fine of $1,000 against the company.

The managers of the coal railway companies voted to make the price of stove coal, free on board in New York harbor, $3.50 per ton, and grate, egg, and chestnut $3.15, the advance to take effect immediately.

A stage making its way in the Canadian Northwest Territory was attacked by robbers, who secured $20,000.

A New York dispatch says that there seems to be little doubt that Maloney, Keenan, and the other "hoodle aldermen" have disengaged their headquarters from Montreal to Paris.

The hay crop of the Eastern States is reported to be a very heavy one, and much in excess of that of last year. The crop of the West is generally poor, owing to the prolonged drought. In some States it is very light, especially in Iowa, where the upland hay is said to be nearly all dried up.

A circular on the fisheries question has been prepared by United States Minister Phelps at London, and secretly delivered to all leading fishing merchants in the United States, with a request to send all answers and suggestions to Mr. Phelps, to whom the matter has been referred by Secretary Bayard.

George H. Bates, of Delaware, a personal friend of Secretary Bayard has started for San Francisco, on a secret mission to the Samoan Islands, where he will meet representatives of European powers.

Almon D. Thompson, the bank-receiver, of St. Louis, has been seen in the streets at Montreal. It is stated that his father and brother will pay him a reward for the full amount purloined by him.

Yokohama, advises state that the cholera, which has been raging at Osaka, Hiro, and Kio, is now abating. About one hundred cases are now occurring daily at the first-named place and fifty at each of the other cities. The majority is about 85 per cent.

A Pekin (China) dispatch says that Russian fleet threatens Lazzaret, because England occupied Port Hamilton during the Afghan dispute.

The British Cabinet, at a meeting in London on the 20th of July, decided to immediately place their resignations in the hands of the Queen, and a message containing the formal resignations was sent to the Queen at Osborne. After the Cabinet meeting Mr. Gladstone gave a reception in the council hall to a number of his friends, including Baron Wolcott, Lord Granville, Lord Rosebery, Baron Monson, and Arnold Morley. Mr. Gladstone referred in despondent terms to his playing powers, saying that he would be unable to fight in the face of an embittered Parliament; he would do his best, but he urged his followers to prepare to rely upon other leaders.

The resignation of the Gladstone Cabinet was accepted by Queen Victoria on the 21st of July.

Two hundred anti-royalist rioters have been arrested in Marseilles, France. Ten persons were wounded during the conflict on the night of July 20.

At a meeting held at Lima, Peru, it was resolved to petition the Government to expel the Jesuits from the country.

United Ireland, Mr. Parnell's organ, commenting on the political situation, says: "The Marquis of Salisbury will be compelled ere long to produce his manacles. During the last year the Irish people have submitted to the uttermost privations and extortions, and yet the 'judicial' rats are becoming daily more unbearable. It is absolutely hopeless to expect any redress from an English Parliament. It is not in human nature for the Irish tenantry to longer refrain from helping themselves. Landlords will fight for their rents with fire, sword, or crowbar, thus obliging Lord Salisbury to pray Parliament to assist the landlords by some new-fangled coercion act. Then will come the tug of war."

Business failures in the United States and Canada last week numbered 184, against 183 the previous week. Failures in the Eastern, Southern, and Middle States are light, and about half the casualties are reported from the West and the Pacific coast. Bradstreet's reports very general continuance in the seasonally active distribution of merchandise, and the largest distributing trade is reported, but a decline is noted at New Orleans, Dallas, Burlington, Iowa, and Kansas City, with no signs of early activity in merchandise lines at Pittsburgh.

In the Southwest and West the drought is largely responsible for the check to business, and at towns in a portion of the region indicated mercantile collections have become less prompt. At others, notably Omaha, retail dealers' stocks are known to have been very much reduced while awaiting the results of harvesting, and wholesale dealers' collections are correspondingly slow in the early autumn.

At St. Louis merchants report that rains have checked the drought in Missouri. Manufacturers are buying wool with more freedom at seaboard points and at Chicago. Prices are steady and so near the importing point that an advance may induce some of foreign. The movement of cotton goods continues fair; some makes are exhausted, and prices are higher, notably in print cloths.

The public execution of Joseph Kamp drew to Gallatin, Mo., a crowd estimated at 20,000 persons, most of them women and children. The hangman at Fort Smith, Ark., swung off a white man and a negro for murderers committed in the Indian Territory.

Foot's Ministerial Carnival Concert Company, which enjoys the reputation of being the best burnt-corn opera combination in the country, opens a season at Meville's Theater, Chicago, this week. It includes among others Schoolcraft and Coes, Hugh Dougherty, Sam Devere, William Arlington, Welch and Rice, Howe and Doyle, Seamon and Girard, Fox and Van Aulen, Duncan, the ventriloquist, and Thomas Dixon. The orchestra comprises thirty instruments, and the chorus numbers sixty voices.

Mr. Hain's resolution for an investigation of the election of Mr. Payne was defeated in the Senate on July 23, the vote standing yeas 17, nays (Conn.) 47, in favor of an investigation. He said the demand for it was not a matter of doubt, but he said that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers. He said that the Senate were in justice and dealing with the question on broad considerations, and that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers. He said that the Senate were in justice and dealing with the question on broad considerations, and that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers.

able to fight in the face of an embittered Parliament; he would do his best, but he urged his followers to prepare to rely upon other leaders.

The resignation of the Gladstone Cabinet was accepted by Queen Victoria on the 21st of July.

Two hundred anti-royalist rioters have been arrested in Marseilles, France. Ten persons were wounded during the conflict on the night of July 20.

At a meeting held at Lima, Peru, it was resolved to petition the Government to expel the Jesuits from the country.

United Ireland, Mr. Parnell's organ, commenting on the political situation, says: "The Marquis of Salisbury will be compelled ere long to produce his manacles. During the last year the Irish people have submitted to the uttermost privations and extortions, and yet the 'judicial' rats are becoming daily more unbearable. It is absolutely hopeless to expect any redress from an English Parliament. It is not in human nature for the Irish tenantry to longer refrain from helping themselves. Landlords will fight for their rents with fire, sword, or crowbar, thus obliging Lord Salisbury to pray Parliament to assist the landlords by some new-fangled coercion act. Then will come the tug of war."

Business failures in the United States and Canada last week numbered 184, against 183 the previous week. Failures in the Eastern, Southern, and Middle States are light, and about half the casualties are reported from the West and the Pacific coast. Bradstreet's reports very general continuance in the seasonally active distribution of merchandise, and the largest distributing trade is reported, but a decline is noted at New Orleans, Dallas, Burlington, Iowa, and Kansas City, with no signs of early activity in merchandise lines at Pittsburgh.

In the Southwest and West the drought is largely responsible for the check to business, and at towns in a portion of the region indicated mercantile collections have become less prompt. At others, notably Omaha, retail dealers' stocks are known to have been very much reduced while awaiting the results of harvesting, and wholesale dealers' collections are correspondingly slow in the early autumn.

At St. Louis merchants report that rains have checked the drought in Missouri. Manufacturers are buying wool with more freedom at seaboard points and at Chicago. Prices are steady and so near the importing point that an advance may induce some of foreign. The movement of cotton goods continues fair; some makes are exhausted, and prices are higher, notably in print cloths.

The public execution of Joseph Kamp drew to Gallatin, Mo., a crowd estimated at 20,000 persons, most of them women and children. The hangman at Fort Smith, Ark., swung off a white man and a negro for murderers committed in the Indian Territory.

Foot's Ministerial Carnival Concert Company, which enjoys the reputation of being the best burnt-corn opera combination in the country, opens a season at Meville's Theater, Chicago, this week. It includes among others Schoolcraft and Coes, Hugh Dougherty, Sam Devere, William Arlington, Welch and Rice, Howe and Doyle, Seamon and Girard, Fox and Van Aulen, Duncan, the ventriloquist, and Thomas Dixon. The orchestra comprises thirty instruments, and the chorus numbers sixty voices.

Mr. Hain's resolution for an investigation of the election of Mr. Payne was defeated in the Senate on July 23, the vote standing yeas 17, nays (Conn.) 47, in favor of an investigation. He said the demand for it was not a matter of doubt, but he said that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers. He said that the Senate were in justice and dealing with the question on broad considerations, and that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers.

able to fight in the face of an embittered Parliament; he would do his best, but he urged his followers to prepare to rely upon other leaders.

The resignation of the Gladstone Cabinet was accepted by Queen Victoria on the 21st of July.

Two hundred anti-royalist rioters have been arrested in Marseilles, France. Ten persons were wounded during the conflict on the night of July 20.

At a meeting held at Lima, Peru, it was resolved to petition the Government to expel the Jesuits from the country.

United Ireland, Mr. Parnell's organ, commenting on the political situation, says: "The Marquis of Salisbury will be compelled ere long to produce his manacles. During the last year the Irish people have submitted to the uttermost privations and extortions, and yet the 'judicial' rats are becoming daily more unbearable. It is absolutely hopeless to expect any redress from an English Parliament. It is not in human nature for the Irish tenantry to longer refrain from helping themselves. Landlords will fight for their rents with fire, sword, or crowbar, thus obliging Lord Salisbury to pray Parliament to assist the landlords by some new-fangled coercion act. Then will come the tug of war."

Business failures in the United States and Canada last week numbered 184, against 183 the previous week. Failures in the Eastern, Southern, and Middle States are light, and about half the casualties are reported from the West and the Pacific coast. Bradstreet's reports very general continuance in the seasonally active distribution of merchandise, and the largest distributing trade is reported, but a decline is noted at New Orleans, Dallas, Burlington, Iowa, and Kansas City, with no signs of early activity in merchandise lines at Pittsburgh.

In the Southwest and West the drought is largely responsible for the check to business, and at towns in a portion of the region indicated mercantile collections have become less prompt. At others, notably Omaha, retail dealers' stocks are known to have been very much reduced while awaiting the results of harvesting, and wholesale dealers' collections are correspondingly slow in the early autumn.

At St. Louis merchants report that rains have checked the drought in Missouri. Manufacturers are buying wool with more freedom at seaboard points and at Chicago. Prices are steady and so near the importing point that an advance may induce some of foreign. The movement of cotton goods continues fair; some makes are exhausted, and prices are higher, notably in print cloths.

The public execution of Joseph Kamp drew to Gallatin, Mo., a crowd estimated at 20,000 persons, most of them women and children. The hangman at Fort Smith, Ark., swung off a white man and a negro for murderers committed in the Indian Territory.

Foot's Ministerial Carnival Concert Company, which enjoys the reputation of being the best burnt-corn opera combination in the country, opens a season at Meville's Theater, Chicago, this week. It includes among others Schoolcraft and Coes, Hugh Dougherty, Sam Devere, William Arlington, Welch and Rice, Howe and Doyle, Seamon and Girard, Fox and Van Aulen, Duncan, the ventriloquist, and Thomas Dixon. The orchestra comprises thirty instruments, and the chorus numbers sixty voices.

Mr. Hain's resolution for an investigation of the election of Mr. Payne was defeated in the Senate on July 23, the vote standing yeas 17, nays (Conn.) 47, in favor of an investigation. He said the demand for it was not a matter of doubt, but he said that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers. He said that the Senate were in justice and dealing with the question on broad considerations, and that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers.

able to fight in the face of an embittered Parliament; he would do his best, but he urged his followers to prepare to rely upon other leaders.

The resignation of the Gladstone Cabinet was accepted by Queen Victoria on the 21st of July.

Two hundred anti-royalist rioters have been arrested in Marseilles, France. Ten persons were wounded during the conflict on the night of July 20.

At a meeting held at Lima, Peru, it was resolved to petition the Government to expel the Jesuits from the country.

United Ireland, Mr. Parnell's organ, commenting on the political situation, says: "The Marquis of Salisbury will be compelled ere long to produce his manacles. During the last year the Irish people have submitted to the uttermost privations and extortions, and yet the 'judicial' rats are becoming daily more unbearable. It is absolutely hopeless to expect any redress from an English Parliament. It is not in human nature for the Irish tenantry to longer refrain from helping themselves. Landlords will fight for their rents with fire, sword, or crowbar, thus obliging Lord Salisbury to pray Parliament to assist the landlords by some new-fangled coercion act. Then will come the tug of war."

Business failures in the United States and Canada last week numbered 184, against 183 the previous week. Failures in the Eastern, Southern, and Middle States are light, and about half the casualties are reported from the West and the Pacific coast. Bradstreet's reports very general continuance in the seasonally active distribution of merchandise, and the largest distributing trade is reported, but a decline is noted at New Orleans, Dallas, Burlington, Iowa, and Kansas City, with no signs of early activity in merchandise lines at Pittsburgh.

In the Southwest and West the drought is largely responsible for the check to business, and at towns in a portion of the region indicated mercantile collections have become less prompt. At others, notably Omaha, retail dealers' stocks are known to have been very much reduced while awaiting the results of harvesting, and wholesale dealers' collections are correspondingly slow in the early autumn.

At St. Louis merchants report that rains have checked the drought in Missouri. Manufacturers are buying wool with more freedom at seaboard points and at Chicago. Prices are steady and so near the importing point that an advance may induce some of foreign. The movement of cotton goods continues fair; some makes are exhausted, and prices are higher, notably in print cloths.

The public execution of Joseph Kamp drew to Gallatin, Mo., a crowd estimated at 20,000 persons, most of them women and children. The hangman at Fort Smith, Ark., swung off a white man and a negro for murderers committed in the Indian Territory.

Foot's Ministerial Carnival Concert Company, which enjoys the reputation of being the best burnt-corn opera combination in the country, opens a season at Meville's Theater, Chicago, this week. It includes among others Schoolcraft and Coes, Hugh Dougherty, Sam Devere, William Arlington, Welch and Rice, Howe and Doyle, Seamon and Girard, Fox and Van Aulen, Duncan, the ventriloquist, and Thomas Dixon. The orchestra comprises thirty instruments, and the chorus numbers sixty voices.

Mr. Hain's resolution for an investigation of the election of Mr. Payne was defeated in the Senate on July 23, the vote standing yeas 17, nays (Conn.) 47, in favor of an investigation. He said the demand for it was not a matter of doubt, but he said that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers. He said that the Senate were in justice and dealing with the question on broad considerations, and that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers.

able to fight in the face of an embittered Parliament; he would do his best, but he urged his followers to prepare to rely upon other leaders.

The resignation of the Gladstone Cabinet was accepted by Queen Victoria on the 21st of July.

Two hundred anti-royalist rioters have been arrested in Marseilles, France. Ten persons were wounded during the conflict on the night of July 20.

At a meeting held at Lima, Peru, it was resolved to petition the Government to expel the Jesuits from the country.

United Ireland, Mr. Parnell's organ, commenting on the political situation, says: "The Marquis of Salisbury will be compelled ere long to produce his manacles. During the last year the Irish people have submitted to the uttermost privations and extortions, and yet the 'judicial' rats are becoming daily more unbearable. It is absolutely hopeless to expect any redress from an English Parliament. It is not in human nature for the Irish tenantry to longer refrain from helping themselves. Landlords will fight for their rents with fire, sword, or crowbar, thus obliging Lord Salisbury to pray Parliament to assist the landlords by some new-fangled coercion act. Then will come the tug of war."

Business failures in the United States and Canada last week numbered 184, against 183 the previous week. Failures in the Eastern, Southern, and Middle States are light, and about half the casualties are reported from the West and the Pacific coast. Bradstreet's reports very general continuance in the seasonally active distribution of merchandise, and the largest distributing trade is reported, but a decline is noted at New Orleans, Dallas, Burlington, Iowa, and Kansas City, with no signs of early activity in merchandise lines at Pittsburgh.

In the Southwest and West the drought is largely responsible for the check to business, and at towns in a portion of the region indicated mercantile collections have become less prompt. At others, notably Omaha, retail dealers' stocks are known to have been very much reduced while awaiting the results of harvesting, and wholesale dealers' collections are correspondingly slow in the early autumn.

At St. Louis merchants report that rains have checked the drought in Missouri. Manufacturers are buying wool with more freedom at seaboard points and at Chicago. Prices are steady and so near the importing point that an advance may induce some of foreign. The movement of cotton goods continues fair; some makes are exhausted, and prices are higher, notably in print cloths.

The public execution of Joseph Kamp drew to Gallatin, Mo., a crowd estimated at 20,000 persons, most of them women and children. The hangman at Fort Smith, Ark., swung off a white man and a negro for murderers committed in the Indian Territory.

Foot's Ministerial Carnival Concert Company, which enjoys the reputation of being the best burnt-corn opera combination in the country, opens a season at Meville's Theater, Chicago, this week. It includes among others Schoolcraft and Coes, Hugh Dougherty, Sam Devere, William Arlington, Welch and Rice, Howe and Doyle, Seamon and Girard, Fox and Van Aulen, Duncan, the ventriloquist, and Thomas Dixon. The orchestra comprises thirty instruments, and the chorus numbers sixty voices.

Mr. Hain's resolution for an investigation of the election of Mr. Payne was defeated in the Senate on July 23, the vote standing yeas 17, nays (Conn.) 47, in favor of an investigation. He said the demand for it was not a matter of doubt, but he said that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers. He said that the Senate were in justice and dealing with the question on broad considerations, and that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers.

able to fight in the face of an embittered Parliament; he would do his best, but he urged his followers to prepare to rely upon other leaders.

The resignation of the Gladstone Cabinet was accepted by Queen Victoria on the 21st of July.

Two hundred anti-royalist rioters have been arrested in Marseilles, France. Ten persons were wounded during the conflict on the night of July 20.

At a meeting held at Lima, Peru, it was resolved to petition the Government to expel the Jesuits from the country.

United Ireland, Mr. Parnell's organ, commenting on the political situation, says: "The Marquis of Salisbury will be compelled ere long to produce his manacles. During the last year the Irish people have submitted to the uttermost privations and extortions, and yet the 'judicial' rats are becoming daily more unbearable. It is absolutely hopeless to expect any redress from an English Parliament. It is not in human nature for the Irish tenantry to longer refrain from helping themselves. Landlords will fight for their rents with fire, sword, or crowbar, thus obliging Lord Salisbury to pray Parliament to assist the landlords by some new-fangled coercion act. Then will come the tug of war."

Business failures in the United States and Canada last week numbered 184, against 183 the previous week. Failures in the Eastern, Southern, and Middle States are light, and about half the casualties are reported from the West and the Pacific coast. Bradstreet's reports very general continuance in the seasonally active distribution of merchandise, and the largest distributing trade is reported, but a decline is noted at New Orleans, Dallas, Burlington, Iowa, and Kansas City, with no signs of early activity in merchandise lines at Pittsburgh.

In the Southwest and West the drought is largely responsible for the check to business, and at towns in a portion of the region indicated mercantile collections have become less prompt. At others, notably Omaha, retail dealers' stocks are known to have been very much reduced while awaiting the results of harvesting, and wholesale dealers' collections are correspondingly slow in the early autumn.

At St. Louis merchants report that rains have checked the drought in Missouri. Manufacturers are buying wool with more freedom at seaboard points and at Chicago. Prices are steady and so near the importing point that an advance may induce some of foreign. The movement of cotton goods continues fair; some makes are exhausted, and prices are higher, notably in print cloths.

The public execution of Joseph Kamp drew to Gallatin, Mo., a crowd estimated at 20,000 persons, most of them women and children. The hangman at Fort Smith, Ark., swung off a white man and a negro for murderers committed in the Indian Territory.

Foot's Ministerial Carnival Concert Company, which enjoys the reputation of being the best burnt-corn opera combination in the country, opens a season at Meville's Theater, Chicago, this week. It includes among others Schoolcraft and Coes, Hugh Dougherty, Sam Devere, William Arlington, Welch and Rice, Howe and Doyle, Seamon and Girard, Fox and Van Aulen, Duncan, the ventriloquist, and Thomas Dixon. The orchestra comprises thirty instruments, and the chorus numbers sixty voices.

Mr. Hain's resolution for an investigation of the election of Mr. Payne was defeated in the Senate on July 23, the vote standing yeas 17, nays (Conn.) 47, in favor of an investigation. He said the demand for it was not a matter of doubt, but he said that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers. He said that the Senate were in justice and dealing with the question on broad considerations, and that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers.

able to fight in the face of an embittered Parliament; he would do his best, but he urged his followers to prepare to rely upon other leaders.

The resignation of the Gladstone Cabinet was accepted by Queen Victoria on the 21st of July.

Two hundred anti-royalist rioters have been arrested in Marseilles, France. Ten persons were wounded during the conflict on the night of July 20.

At a meeting held at Lima, Peru, it was resolved to petition the Government to expel the Jesuits from the country.

United Ireland, Mr. Parnell's organ, commenting on the political situation, says: "The Marquis of Salisbury will be compelled ere long to produce his manacles. During the last year the Irish people have submitted to the uttermost privations and extortions, and yet the 'judicial' rats are becoming daily more unbearable. It is absolutely hopeless to expect any redress from an English Parliament. It is not in human nature for the Irish tenantry to longer refrain from helping themselves. Landlords will fight for their rents with fire, sword, or crowbar, thus obliging Lord Salisbury to pray Parliament to assist the landlords by some new-fangled coercion act. Then will come the tug of war."

Business failures in the United States and Canada last week numbered 184, against 183 the previous week. Failures in the Eastern, Southern, and Middle States are light, and about half the casualties are reported from the West and the Pacific coast. Bradstreet's reports very general continuance in the seasonally active distribution of merchandise, and the largest distributing trade is reported, but a decline is noted at New Orleans, Dallas, Burlington, Iowa, and Kansas City, with no signs of early activity in merchandise lines at Pittsburgh.

In the Southwest and West the drought is largely responsible for the check to business, and at towns in a portion of the region indicated mercantile collections have become less prompt. At others, notably Omaha, retail dealers' stocks are known to have been very much reduced while awaiting the results of harvesting, and wholesale dealers' collections are correspondingly slow in the early autumn.

At St. Louis merchants report that rains have checked the drought in Missouri. Manufacturers are buying wool with more freedom at seaboard points and at Chicago. Prices are steady and so near the importing point that an advance may induce some of foreign. The movement of cotton goods continues fair; some makes are exhausted, and prices are higher, notably in print cloths.

The public execution of Joseph Kamp drew to Gallatin, Mo., a crowd estimated at 20,000 persons, most of them women and children. The hangman at Fort Smith, Ark., swung off a white man and a negro for murderers committed in the Indian Territory.

Foot's Ministerial Carnival Concert Company, which enjoys the reputation of being the best burnt-corn opera combination in the country, opens a season at Meville's Theater, Chicago, this week. It includes among others Schoolcraft and Coes, Hugh Dougherty, Sam Devere, William Arlington, Welch and Rice, Howe and Doyle, Seamon and Girard, Fox and Van Aulen, Duncan, the ventriloquist, and Thomas Dixon. The orchestra comprises thirty instruments, and the chorus numbers sixty voices.

Mr. Hain's resolution for an investigation of the election of Mr. Payne was defeated in the Senate on July 23, the vote standing yeas 17, nays (Conn.) 47, in favor of an investigation. He said the demand for it was not a matter of doubt, but he said that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers. He said that the Senate were in justice and dealing with the question on broad considerations, and that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers.

able to fight in the face of an embittered Parliament; he would do his best, but he urged his followers to prepare to rely upon other leaders.

The resignation of the Gladstone Cabinet was accepted by Queen Victoria on the 21st of July.

Two hundred anti-royalist rioters have been arrested in Marseilles, France. Ten persons were wounded during the conflict on the night of July 20.

At a meeting held at Lima, Peru, it was resolved to petition the Government to expel the Jesuits from the country.

United Ireland, Mr. Parnell's organ, commenting on the political situation, says: "The Marquis of Salisbury will be compelled ere long to produce his manacles. During the last year the Irish people have submitted to the uttermost privations and extortions, and yet the 'judicial' rats are becoming daily more unbearable. It is absolutely hopeless to expect any redress from an English Parliament. It is not in human nature for the Irish tenantry to longer refrain from helping themselves. Landlords will fight for their rents with fire, sword, or crowbar, thus obliging Lord Salisbury to pray Parliament to assist the landlords by some new-fangled coercion act. Then will come the tug of war."

Business failures in the United States and Canada last week numbered 184, against 183 the previous week. Failures in the Eastern, Southern, and Middle States are light, and about half the casualties are reported from the West and the Pacific coast. Bradstreet's reports very general continuance in the seasonally active distribution of merchandise, and the largest distributing trade is reported, but a decline is noted at New Orleans, Dallas, Burlington, Iowa, and Kansas City, with no signs of early activity in merchandise lines at Pittsburgh.

In the Southwest and West the drought is largely responsible for the check to business, and at towns in a portion of the region indicated mercantile collections have become less prompt. At others, notably Omaha, retail dealers' stocks are known to have been very much reduced while awaiting the results of harvesting, and wholesale dealers' collections are correspondingly slow in the early autumn.

At St. Louis merchants report that rains have checked the drought in Missouri. Manufacturers are buying wool with more freedom at seaboard points and at Chicago. Prices are steady and so near the importing point that an advance may induce some of foreign. The movement of cotton goods continues fair; some makes are exhausted, and prices are higher, notably in print cloths.

The public execution of Joseph Kamp drew to Gallatin, Mo., a crowd estimated at 20,000 persons, most of them women and children. The hangman at Fort Smith, Ark., swung off a white man and a negro for murderers committed in the Indian Territory.

Foot's Ministerial Carnival Concert Company, which enjoys the reputation of being the best burnt-corn opera combination in the country, opens a season at Meville's Theater, Chicago, this week. It includes among others Schoolcraft and Coes, Hugh Dougherty, Sam Devere, William Arlington, Welch and Rice, Howe and Doyle, Seamon and Girard, Fox and Van Aulen, Duncan, the ventriloquist, and Thomas Dixon. The orchestra comprises thirty instruments, and the chorus numbers sixty voices.

Mr. Hain's resolution for an investigation of the election of Mr. Payne was defeated in the Senate on July 23, the vote standing yeas 17, nays (Conn.) 47, in favor of an investigation. He said the demand for it was not a matter of doubt, but he said that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers. He said that the Senate were in justice and dealing with the question on broad considerations, and that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers.

able to fight in the face of an embittered Parliament; he would do his best, but he urged his followers to prepare to rely upon other leaders.

The resignation of the Gladstone Cabinet was accepted by Queen Victoria on the 21st of July.

Two hundred anti-royalist rioters have been arrested in Marseilles, France. Ten persons were wounded during the conflict on the night of July 20.

At a meeting held at Lima, Peru, it was resolved to petition the Government to expel the Jesuits from the country.

United Ireland, Mr. Parnell's organ, commenting on the political situation, says: "The Marquis of Salisbury will be compelled ere long to produce his manacles. During the last year the Irish people have submitted to the uttermost privations and extortions, and yet the 'judicial' rats are becoming daily more unbearable. It is absolutely hopeless to expect any redress from an English Parliament. It is not in human nature for the Irish tenantry to longer refrain from helping themselves. Landlords will fight for their rents with fire, sword, or crowbar, thus obliging Lord Salisbury to pray Parliament to assist the landlords by some new-fangled coercion act. Then will come the tug of war."

Business failures in the United States and Canada last week numbered 184, against 183 the previous week. Failures in the Eastern, Southern, and Middle States are light, and about half the casualties are reported from the West and the Pacific coast. Bradstreet's reports very general continuance in the seasonally active distribution of merchandise, and the largest distributing trade is reported, but a decline is noted at New Orleans, Dallas, Burlington, Iowa, and Kansas City, with no signs of early activity in merchandise lines at Pittsburgh.

In the Southwest and West the drought is largely responsible for the check to business, and at towns in a portion of the region indicated mercantile collections have become less prompt. At others, notably Omaha, retail dealers' stocks are known to have been very much reduced while awaiting the results of harvesting, and wholesale dealers' collections are correspondingly slow in the early autumn.

At St. Louis merchants report that rains have checked the drought in Missouri. Manufacturers are buying wool with more freedom at seaboard points and at Chicago. Prices are steady and so near the importing point that an advance may induce some of foreign. The movement of cotton goods continues fair; some makes are exhausted, and prices are higher, notably in print cloths.

The public execution of Joseph Kamp drew to Gallatin, Mo., a crowd estimated at 20,000 persons, most of them women and children. The hangman at Fort Smith, Ark., swung off a white man and a negro for murderers committed in the Indian Territory.

Foot's Ministerial Carnival Concert Company, which enjoys the reputation of being the best burnt-corn opera combination in the country, opens a season at Meville's Theater, Chicago, this week. It includes among others Schoolcraft and Coes, Hugh Dougherty, Sam Devere, William Arlington, Welch and Rice, Howe and Doyle, Seamon and Girard, Fox and Van Aulen, Duncan, the ventriloquist, and Thomas Dixon. The orchestra comprises thirty instruments, and the chorus numbers sixty voices.

Mr. Hain's resolution for an investigation of the election of Mr. Payne was defeated in the Senate on July 23, the vote standing yeas 17, nays (Conn.) 47, in favor of an investigation. He said the demand for it was not a matter of doubt, but he said that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers. He said that the Senate were in justice and dealing with the question on broad considerations, and that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers.

able to fight in the face of an embittered Parliament; he would do his best, but he urged his followers to prepare to rely upon other leaders.

The resignation of the Gladstone Cabinet was accepted by Queen Victoria on the 21st of July.

Two hundred anti-royalist rioters have been arrested in Marseilles, France. Ten persons were wounded during the conflict on the night of July 20.

At a meeting held at Lima, Peru, it was resolved to petition the Government to expel the Jesuits from the country.

United Ireland, Mr. Parnell's organ, commenting on the political situation, says: "The Marquis of Salisbury will be compelled ere long to produce his manacles. During the last year the Irish people have submitted to the uttermost privations and extortions, and yet the 'judicial' rats are becoming daily more unbearable. It is absolutely hopeless to expect any redress from an English Parliament. It is not in human nature for the Irish tenantry to longer refrain from helping themselves. Landlords will fight for their rents with fire, sword, or crowbar, thus obliging Lord Salisbury to pray Parliament to assist the landlords by some new-fangled coercion act. Then will come the tug of war."

Business failures in the United States and Canada last week numbered 184, against 183 the previous week. Failures in the Eastern, Southern, and Middle States are light, and about half the casualties are reported from the West and the Pacific coast. Bradstreet's reports very general continuance in the seasonally active distribution of merchandise, and the largest distributing trade is reported, but a decline is noted at New Orleans, Dallas, Burlington, Iowa, and Kansas City, with no signs of early activity in merchandise lines at Pittsburgh.

In the Southwest and West the drought is largely responsible for the check to business, and at towns in a portion of the region indicated mercantile collections have become less prompt. At others, notably Omaha, retail dealers' stocks are known to have been very much reduced while awaiting the results of harvesting, and wholesale dealers' collections are correspondingly slow in the early autumn.

At St. Louis merchants report that rains have checked the drought in Missouri. Manufacturers are buying wool with more freedom at seaboard points and at Chicago. Prices are steady and so near the importing point that an advance may induce some of foreign. The movement of cotton goods continues fair; some makes are exhausted, and prices are higher, notably in print cloths.

The public execution of Joseph Kamp drew to Gallatin, Mo., a crowd estimated at 20,000 persons, most of them women and children. The hangman at Fort Smith, Ark., swung off a white man and a negro for murderers committed in the Indian Territory.

Foot's Ministerial Carnival Concert Company, which enjoys the reputation of being the best burnt-corn opera combination in the country, opens a season at Meville's Theater, Chicago, this week. It includes among others Schoolcraft and Coes, Hugh Dougherty, Sam Devere, William Arlington, Welch and Rice, Howe and Doyle, Seamon and Girard, Fox and Van Aulen, Duncan, the ventriloquist, and Thomas Dixon. The orchestra comprises thirty instruments, and the chorus numbers sixty voices.

Mr. Hain's resolution for an investigation of the election of Mr. Payne was defeated in the Senate on July 23, the vote standing yeas 17, nays (Conn.) 47, in favor of an investigation. He said the demand for it was not a matter of doubt, but he said that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers. He said that the Senate were in justice and dealing with the question on broad considerations, and that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers.

able to fight in the face of an embittered Parliament; he would do his best, but he urged his followers to prepare to rely upon other leaders.

The resignation of the Gladstone Cabinet was accepted by Queen Victoria on the 21st of July.

Two hundred anti-royalist rioters have been arrested in Marseilles, France. Ten persons were wounded during the conflict on the night of July 20.

At a meeting held at Lima, Peru, it was resolved to petition the Government to expel the Jesuits from the country.

United Ireland, Mr. Parnell's organ, commenting on the political situation, says: "The Marquis of Salisbury will be compelled ere long to produce his manacles. During the last year the Irish people have submitted to the uttermost privations and extortions, and yet the 'judicial' rats are becoming daily more unbearable. It is absolutely hopeless to expect any redress from an English Parliament. It is not in human nature for the Irish tenantry to longer refrain from helping themselves. Landlords will fight for their rents with fire, sword, or crowbar, thus obliging Lord Salisbury to pray Parliament to assist the landlords by some new-fangled coercion act. Then will come the tug of war."

Business failures in the United States and Canada last week numbered 184, against 183 the previous week. Failures in the Eastern, Southern, and Middle States are light, and about half the casualties are reported from the West and the Pacific coast. Bradstreet's reports very general continuance in the seasonally active distribution of merchandise, and the largest distributing trade is reported, but a decline is noted at New Orleans, Dallas, Burlington, Iowa, and Kansas City, with no signs of early activity in merchandise lines at Pittsburgh.

In the Southwest and West the drought is largely responsible for the check to business, and at towns in a portion of the region indicated mercantile collections have become less prompt. At others, notably Omaha, retail dealers' stocks are known to have been very much reduced while awaiting the results of harvesting, and wholesale dealers' collections are correspondingly slow in the early autumn.

At St. Louis merchants report that rains have checked the drought in Missouri. Manufacturers are buying wool with more freedom at seaboard points and at Chicago. Prices are steady and so near the importing point that an advance may induce some of foreign. The movement of cotton goods continues fair; some makes are exhausted, and prices are higher, notably in print cloths.

The public execution of Joseph Kamp drew to Gallatin, Mo., a crowd estimated at 20,000 persons, most of them women and children. The hangman at Fort Smith, Ark., swung off a white man and a negro for murderers committed in the Indian Territory.

Foot's Ministerial Carnival Concert Company, which enjoys the reputation of being the best burnt-corn opera combination in the country, opens a season at Meville's Theater, Chicago, this week. It includes among others Schoolcraft and Coes, Hugh Dougherty, Sam Devere, William Arlington, Welch and Rice, Howe and Doyle, Seamon and Girard, Fox and Van Aulen, Duncan, the ventriloquist, and Thomas Dixon. The orchestra comprises thirty instruments, and the chorus numbers sixty voices.

Mr. Hain's resolution for an investigation of the election of Mr. Payne was defeated in the Senate on July 23, the vote standing yeas 17, nays (Conn.) 47, in favor of an investigation. He said the demand for it was not a matter of doubt, but he said that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers. He said that the Senate were in justice and dealing with the question on broad considerations, and that the Senate were not to be deceived by the declarations from the Legislature and from the Democratic papers.

able to fight in the face of an embittered Parliament; he would do his best, but he urged his followers to prepare to rely upon other leaders.

The resignation of the Gladstone Cabinet was accepted by Queen Victoria on the 21st of July.

Two hundred anti-royalist rioters have been arrested in Marseilles, France. Ten persons were wounded during the conflict on the night of July 20.

At a meeting held at Lima, Peru, it was resolved to petition the Government to expel the Jesuits from the country.

United Ireland, Mr. Parnell's organ, commenting on the political situation, says: "The Marquis of Salisbury will be compelled ere long to produce his manacles. During the last year the Irish people have submitted to the uttermost privations and extortions, and yet the 'judicial' rats are becoming daily more unbearable. It is absolutely hopeless to expect any redress from an English Parliament. It is not in human nature for the Irish tenantry to longer refrain from helping themselves. Landlords will fight for